Does their Share in Revitalizing Downtown Riverhead

Riverhead, New York- Markowitz, Fenelon & Bank, LLP, the largest certified public accounting firm on the East End of Long Island with four offices in Riverhead, Southampton, East Hampton and Sag Harbor purchases buildings for new office space for its' Riverhead location.

After years of searching for an office building that would provide the much needed room for their growing Riverhead practice, the firm has settled on facilities located at 552-554 East Main Street located in downtown Riverhead, a stone's throw from the Riverhead Aquarium.

Thomas P. Terry, partner in the Riverhead office states "we anticipate moving into the new location once all the renovations are complete, hopefully before the end of 2015 and most definitely before the 2016 tax season".
