Amanda L. Sexton Named to Maurer Foundation Board of Directors

RIVERHEAD, NY, February 2017 — Markowitz, Fenelon & Bank, LLP CPAs is pleased to announce the appointment of Amanda L. Sexton, CPA/ABV/CFF, CFE, to the Maurer Foundation for Breast Health Education Board of Directors.

A native of Southampton, Ms. Sexton has more than 10 years of public accounting experience, primarily in the areas of business valuation, litigation support, accounting and auditing. She also has experience auditing grant programs. Her clients include not-for-profit organizations as well as closely-held businesses and individuals. She is incoming President of the Suffolk Chapter of the New York State Society of Public Accountants and lends her time to many civic and charitable organizations, including co-founding the East End Committee and volunteering for Hope House Ministries and the Long Island Coalition for the Homeless.

“Amanda’s enthusiasm and commitment to our cause will make her a great addition to our board. We are excited to continue working with her,” said Susan Samaroo, Executive Director of the Maurer Foundation.

Founded in 1995, the Maurer Foundation focuses on breast cancer prevention, healthy lifestyle choices, early detection and risk reduction. The Foundation has educated over 300,000 individuals, focusing primarily on high school and college students as well as various businesses and community groups all over New York. The Foundation hosts several fund-raising and awareness events throughout the year. For more information, visit www.maurerfoundation.org.
